Too often parents delegate these matters to the church, but in an hour or two a week the church cannot provide adequate spiritual training. The church needs the cooperation of parents in this stupendous task. It should be said to the credit of the church that it is now taking materials of study to the parents to help them fulfill their parental responsibilities,

Forward With God

PRESIDENT L. W. GOEBEL

The primary purpose of the Year Book consists in a review of the service rendered by the Church in the preceding year. Nevertheless it is also intended that through its columns a challenge for more devoted and effective service be submitted to its readers. Inasmuch as at this writing we have just returned from the sessions of the eighth General Synod of our Church, it seems but natural that in the page which is allotted to the undersigned, we call attention to the challenge which comes to the entire Church from this meeting.

DR. L. W. GOEBEL

It was the general opinion of delegates attending the above meeting that it was one of the best in the history of the Church. This judgment undoubtedly was based on the fact that lay delegates were in the forefront of those who encouraged the administration of the Church to set its sights higher. The laymen moved and supported a motion that the apportionment asking for the next triennium be set at three million dollars. This was several hundred thousand dollars beyond the sum recommended through the Blue Book. Here was an expression then of faith and consecration which greatly encouraged the Boards and agencies, and the administration of the Church. We have supreme confidence that our churches will in the same measure of faith support this decision of General Synod. This will mean that we can, as a Church, more adequately undergird the entire expanding program of all of our Boards, commissions and agencies.

The General Synod furthermore voted to establish a Committee on Vital Christian Living. This Committee is to concern itself, in cooperation with the Boards and agencies, with the responsibility of quickening the spiritual life of our churches, of fostering interest in the evangelistic task of the Church and of finding ways and means in cooperation with the auxiliary organizations of the General Synod, such as the Churchmen's Brotherhood, the Women's Guild and the Youth Fellowship, for more active participation in the general program of the Church on the part of our laity, and in general to stimulate our people to more vital Christian living. It is hoped that not only Synods, but also local congregations, may establish similar committees, for unless the life of the local church is quickened, the program of the denomination cannot go forward and the work of Christ's Church will suffer loss.

Conscious that in the period of growth and expansion since the Evangelical and Reformed Church came into being, new opportunities of service and new areas of responsibility have developed, General Synod also authorized the appointment of a special committee to study the entire program of the Church in the interest of efficiency and economy. This committee will concern itself most earnestly with a careful analysis and appraisal of our whole program.

It will not be amiss in this brief statement to pay tribute to those who have retired from membership in the official family of the Church. To all of them the Church owes a debt of gratitude. Specifically we would refer to the retirement of Dr. William E. Lampe as Secretary, Dr. John Lentz as First Vice-President and Mr. Edward Dirks as Second Vice-President. They have faithfully served their Church. We shall miss them in our counsels.

We are living in a time which calls upon every Christian to place his reliance anew upon that God who is our help and in whom is our trust. Not in the lifetime of any of us have men been so conscious that their own wisdom and their own skills are insufficient for the solving of the pressing problems which confront the Church and the nations of the world. Therefore we will not cease to put our trust in him with whom all things are possible. To the entire membership of our Church we extend heartiest good wishes for the year which lies ahead. May God's grace be revealed to you in the measure in which in faith you commit yourself to his keeping.

Eighth Annual Session of the General Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa. June 21-28, 1950

HISTORY was made in connection with the eighth triennial session of the General Synod held from June 21 to 28, in that it was the first time in the history of the Evangelical and Reformed Church that a meeting of the highest judicatory of the Church was held on one of our college campuses. The invitation having been extended through Dr. Norman E. McClure, president of the College, and duly accepted by the General Synod, the detailed preparation proceeded apace so that through the splendid cooperation of the college staff and the officers and committees of the General Synod everything was in readiness by the opening date.

DR. W. S. SCHROEDER
Moderator

The entire staff and equipment and all the buildings of the college were placed at the disposal of the General Synod. A feeling of unity and a splendid camaraderie were engendered among the hundreds of delegates and visitors because every one could be housed and dined and all sessions held on the campus or nearby. While praise must be general and not specific, it is in order to make special acknowledgment of the all-out cooperation on the part of the vice-president of the college, Dr. Donald Helfferich, and the steward, Mr. James Morrison.

Registration and Attendance

The General Synod met in historic Bomberger Hall with a registration of 160 ministerial and 160 lay delegates, and more than 50 other delegates at large, executive officers of the denomination and heads of the Boards and the institutions.

History was again made in that it was the first meeting of a General Synod to be attended by a hand-picked group of nine young people, all prominent in the work of the Youth Fellowship. They were given voice but not vote. In addition to this group a tenth young woman, high in the service of the Fellowship, was an accredited delegate from one of the Synods. Significant of the increasing recognition accorded the women of the Church was the fact that there were 13 women delegates registered from as many Synods. Having both voice and vote, they not only served on important committees but also took an active part in the deliberations during the meetings.

It is estimated that more than 400 visiting ministers and lay members of the denomination attended one or more sessions as observers.

The Religious Convocation

An audience of 2500 worshippers packed the Patterson Athletic Field grandstand on Sunday evening, June 25, when the Spiritual Convocation was addressed by the Rev. John S. Stamm, D.D., President of the Federal Council of Churches and Bishop of the Evangelical United Brethren Church on the subject, "Redemption through the Spirit." An augmented choir from the Valley Forge Chapel, under the direction of Miss Marion G. Spangler, an alumna of the college, discoursed special music.

Fraternal Greetings

Fraternal greetings were exchanged with the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches in session at Cleveland, Ohio, and with the General Synod of the Missouri Lutheran Church in session at Milwaukee, Wis., both bodies meeting during the same week.

Representatives of the following groups and organizations addressed the General Synod on Friday, the 23rd:

Dr. George Dilworth, Pennsylvania Branch of the American Bible Society; Dr. Allan S. Meck, Alliance of Reformed Churches; Dr. Samuel M. Cavert, Federal Council of Churches; Dr. Earl F. Adams, National Council of Churches, and Dr. W. A. Wisser t' Hooft, World Council of Churches.

Organization Effected

The General Synod effected an organization on the opening day by electing Dr. Frederick W. Schroeder, President of Eden Theological Seminary, Webster Groves, Mo., as Moderator and Rev. Sheldon E. Mackey, pastor of the Second Church, Reading, Pa., as Vice-Moderator.

Dr. William E. Lampe, Secretary, was assisted by Dr. Franklin I. Sheeder and Dr. W. Sherman Kerschner as Recording Secretaries. Mr. Thomas Schlundt served as Roll Clerk and a group of nearby pastors presided at the registration desks.

Briefs of Important Actions

The following were among the many significant actions taken by the General Synod:

Dr. William E. Lampe was retired as Secretary of the Church after a fifty year ministry, which included a succession of secretarial positions extending over more than forty-three years. The General Synod voted to make him a life-member of the body in recognition of his long service and the matter of a suitable pension for him was referred to the General Council. (Dr. Lampe passed away most suddenly on August 16, 1950.)

Strong resolutions were adopted on such issues as race relations, the separation of Church and State, and other social questions in the field of Christian Social Action. The General Synod reaffirmed its "commitment to the goal of a non-segregated church in a non-segregated society" and "called upon Congress to take action, long past due, to end discrimination in housing, employment, schooling for the children, exercise of the franchise and in the protection afforded by the courts."

Endorsing "the principle of federal aid to public education" the General Synod opposed "any effort by Roman Catholic officials to secure public funds to maintain a private school system." At the same time the delegates recommended "that welfare services, such as school lunch and health programs, should be provided through legislation and administered by agencies separate from those having to do with assistance to the schools themselves for educational purposes as such." The General Synod asserted that "pupils of parochial schools do not surrender their right to share in the services provided for the general welfare of children and youth."

Of major importance was the increasing provision made for the more than 900 ministers and widows who are now beneficiaries under the former "E" and "R" pension plans. It was voted to increase their maximum pension to $720 for ministers, with 60% thereof to widows.

A generous gesture in behalf of ministers who are members of the Ministers' Relief Annuity Fund provides a $1000 benefit for the widow of a member-minister who dies in active service prior to the age of fifty-five. This amount is gradually decreased to $100 until the age of sixty-five, which is the age of eligible retirement. A $1000 minimum pension after 40 years of Ministers' Relief Annuity Fund membership was voted.

The equalization feature was eliminated from the Ministers' Relief Annuity Fund structure, and the ruling adopted that all payments by ministers and congregations be credited to the individual members on whose account they are made. Also, beginning with January 1, 1951, payment by the congregations or supporting agencies to the Ministers' Relief Annuity Fund will be increased from the present 5% to 8% of the equivalent of the member-ministers' annual salary. These changes in the Ministers' Relief Annuity Fund setup are designed to be of special advantage to low-salaried ministers.

The General Synod authorized the Commission on Higher Education and the General Council to study the desirability of launching a campaign to raise a fund of $2,500,000 to aid the two academies, eight colleges and three theological seminaries affiliated with the denomination. This report, to be made at the next meeting of the General Synod, shall include a proposed plan of action. The work of the educational institutions of our Church was emphasized and an additional $160,410 voted them for the coming tri-ennium.

The General Synod by a strong resolution reiterated a previous stand taken in opposition to the appointment of an ambassador or of a personal representative of the President of the United States to the Vatican at Rome. This was in response to overtures from many Synods. Practically all the Synods took similar action at their spring meetings.

Authorization was given designating

REV. S. E. MACKEY
Vice-Moderator

the last Sunday in January, which is the beginning of the observance of Youth Week by the United Christian Youth Movement, as denominational Youth Sunday.

Acting upon the report of the Commission on Higher Education the General Synod expressed its appreciation of the "intelligent and efficient administration of the Church related institutions by their executives and Boards." The administrators were also commended "for their sincere and manifest interest in maintaining and furthering the ideals of the Christian religion."

By one of the closest votes of the entire week the General Synod adopted a resolution approving the creation of a "Commission" on Stewardship to replace the "Committee" which has functioned heretofore. A two-thirds vote was necessary for passage as it involved a change in the Constitution of the Church. The final count showed just one vote in excess of the number required to pass. Selection of the necessary personnel was referred to the General Council.

Approval was given to the entire report of the Commission on Evangelism, sanctioning a program calling for membership reactivation, assimilation, integration and conservation in 1951, with special emphasis upon strengthening the spiritual foundations of both the home and the Church, and a concentrated effort to reach the unchurched during the coming triennium. A communicant membership of 753,000 is sought for, with 50,000 accessions in 1951; 51,000 in 1952 and 52,000 in 1953. The danger and the all too prevalent practice of erasing members' names from Church rolls without making intensive efforts at re-vitalizing them was frowned upon in the report.

A resolution was presented which if adopted would have effected a change in the method of electing the delegates to the General Synod so as to give more persons an opportunity of attending the sessions and thus exercise a voice and vote in its deliberations. The proponents of the idea felt that a rotation in the Synodical delegation was desirable and would prove advantageous. However, the expressed opinion that it would be in the interest of the denomination as a whole to allow the Synods to continue a free choice in electing their delegates seemed to meet with favor, and the resolution was defeated in a voice vote.

Only the General Synod can act to approve any re-aligning of congregations which would affect the Synodical boundaries. Accordingly, the General Synod approved the transfer of the two congregations of the Wentz Charge from Lehigh to Philadelphia Synod, the transfer of Emmanuel, Lansford, Pa., from Reading to Lehigh Synod, and the transfer of St. John's New Albin, Iowa, Iowa Synod, and St. Johns, Fountain City, Wis., North Wisconsin Synod, to the Northern Synod.

In Treasurer Keck's three year report he mentioned that the total receipts for 1949 were $3,714,215.03. This total included $2,834,026.50 for missionary causes and $880,188.53 for Christian World Service. Among the major disbursements for the triennium were:

- $956,548—International Missions
- $662,705—National Missions
- $892,672—World Service
- $170,991—Christian Education
- $335,530—Board of Pensions and Relief.

The General Synod approved the action relative to the Temple of Good Will at Columbus, Ohio, and instructed the General Council to continue this contact.

The General Council was instructed to appoint a Committee to study the total program, personnel and organization of our denominational life and work, with a view to possible changes in the interest of efficiency, effectiveness and economy, the said Committee to report periodically to the General Council and finally to the next regular meeting of the General Synod.

The General Synod approved financial aid not to exceed $300 per year to women desiring to engage in full-time Christian service as commissioned workers. This was referred to the General Council, with power to act.

Overtures to change the number of members on the Board of Pensions and Relief and on the Commission of Christian Social Action were adopted, subject to the approval of the General Council.

A proposed Decennial Convention of the pastors of the Church, which came before the General Synod through an overture, was freely discussed and found favor in some quarters. However, the proposal did not have sufficient support to receive the necessary votes for adoption.

The General Synod authorized the appointment of a Committee on Vital Christian Living to seek to develop and deepen the religious life and ministry of the denomination's 2,754 congregations. The matter was referred to the General Council with power to act.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Finance and Budget, upon which depended the amount to be apportioned for the denominational benevolences during the coming triennium, evoked considerable discussion. One of the woman delegates in referring to the amount suggested by the Committee referred to it as "anemic and in need of a transfusion." Several other lay delegates spoke in the same strain. The item as amended and finally adopted provides for a three-year budget of $9,000,000 which is $2,100,000 greater than the budget for the past triennium. In addition, the Church proposes to raise $500,000 annually over the same period of time for world relief and reconstruction, 20 per cent of which is to be used for reconstruction of mission properties damaged or destroyed during World War II. The amount was referred to the General Council for distribution.

Noting the tenor of the highest judiciary in the Church and the enthusiasm of the lay delegates especially, President Goebel said during the above discussion: "When laymen come to the platform and challenge the Church to set its sights higher, there is a future for the Evangelical and Reformed Church." This observation was received with rounds of applause.

Miscellanies

The following members of the General Council, having served the constitutional limit of twelve years with uniform consecration and faithfulness, completed their term of office with this meeting of the General Synod: ministers, Drs. Gerhard W. Grauer, Paul M. Schroeder, James E. Wagner; laymen, Marshall R. Anspach, John W. Mueller, Henry J. Schlundt, Leonard W. Swanson. The election for their successors resulted as follows: ministers, Drs. John R. C. Haas, John Lentz, Robert C. Stanger; laymen, Allan G. Aigler, Bellevue, Ohio; Herbert W. Beutel, Dallas, Texas; Carl Bosch, Jefferson City, Mo.; Clarence W. Hess, Akron, Pa.

Prior to the opening session a luncheon meeting with several conferences following sponsored by the Commission on Christian Social Action, was held in Trinity Church, Collegeville. One of these conferences, built around the theme "A Constructive Approach to the Foreign Policy," was led by Dr. Richard M. Fagley of the Federal Council's Department of International Justice and Good Will. Another section discussed "The Next Step in Race Relations," with Rev. Jefferson P. Rogers as the leader. Dr. Elmer J. F. Arndt, Chairman of the Commission on Christian Social Action, presided at the group conference.

Sixty-two ministerial delegates occupied pulpits in neighboring churches within a radius of the twenty-five miles of Collegeville on General Synod Sunday, June 25. All the arrangements were effected by Rev. James W. Bright, Norristown, Pa.

The General Synod again referred the matter of establishing central denominational headquarters to the General Council and the Board of Business Management.

Pilgrimages to nearby historic shrines, including several two-century old churches and the hills at Valley Forge, were arranged as a diversion for the delegates on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. A most interesting religious service was held at the historic Augustus Lutheran Church at Trappe, Pa., with Dr. Charles E. Schaeffer of Philadelphia as one of the speakers.

Elaborate and expressive exhibits, one in the Library arranged by the Department of United Promotion, and others in Bomberger Hall sponsored by the Board of Christian Education and Publication and the Board of Business Management, were visited by the delegates and many visitors throughout the entire week.

Before the adjournment of the General Synod, Dr. George W. Richards, one of the truly great churchmen produced by our denomination, made in effect this statement: "I have attended every General Synod meeting of the Reformed Church and of the Evangelical and Reformed Church since I was ordained in 1890 with the exception of the one in 1899 when I was a student in Germany. In all of these years I have never been so proud of my Church as I have been while listening to the transactions of this Synod. It has been a Synod with but one thought in mind—to advance the Kingdom of God. The actions that you have taken have been the most progressive of any General Synod that I have attended. What you have done will do much good for God's cause and His Church. I am getting along in years and it is quite possible that this will be my last Synod, but I know God will strengthen and bless you in the tasks that you have now set up for yourselves."

Place of Next Triennial Meeting

Two invitations, one from First and Grace Churches, Akron, Ohio, and the other from the First Hungarian Church, Cleveland, Ohio, were extended as the place for the 1953 meeting of the General Synod. The Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., and Franklin and Marshall College united in extending an invitation to hold the 1956 meeting at Lancaster. These invitations were referred to the General Council with power to decide.

William E. Lampe, Ph.D., LL.D., D.D.

In Memoriam

DR. WILLIAM E. LAMPE was born at Frederick, Md., May 23, 1875, the son of Christian Lewis Charles and Mary Eva (Babel) Lampe. In 1892 he graduated from the Frederick Academy and from the Princeton University in 1896. From 1896 to 1898 he attended the Princeton Theological Seminary and then came to Lancaster where he graduated from the Theological Seminary in 1899. On December 28, 1899, he married Anna Lenora Thomas of Boonsboro, Md., which union was blessed with seven children.

In 1900 he was ordained to the Christian ministry and was at once commissioned as a missionary to Japan. Returning to America in 1907 he organized the Laymen's Missionary Movement in the Reformed Church in 1908 and soon became its leading spirit.

With characteristic ardor he widened his activities, becoming a recognized leader in his own denomination and in many inter-denominational bodies. A master of detail, meticulous to the nth degree, he became the recording secretary for many groups, organizations and movements. These included the World's Sunday School Association, the Foreign Missionary Conference, United Missionary and Stewardship Committee of the Reformed Church, Forward Movement, Executive Committee of the Reformed Church, General Synod and General Council of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, and the Committee on Constitution and Charter of the Church. He served as President of the United Stewardship Council of the Churches of Christ in America, the Civic League of Philadelphia, a director of the Anti-Saloon League of Pennsylvania and of America; a member of the Federal Council of Churches and its Executive Committee and of the Western Section of the Alliance of Reformed Churches. In none of these activities was he an idle spectator but always an active participant.

He never spared himself. Endowed with an athletic frame, a nervous temperament and a soul on fire, he disciplined himself to hard labor, often remaining at his desk into the long hours of the night. Gifted with a marvellous memory, he could recall speedily and accurately actions taken in the past, and recite statistics and dates to the amazement of his colleagues. He knew the Church as few men knew it, and with an intelligence unmatched and a zeal undaunted he wrought valiantly in behalf of its interests.

His most outstanding characteristic was his conscientiousness. Deeply rooted in the faith, he cherished high ideals and held firm convictions. He was not always appreciated by his contemporaries, who on occasions would differ with him on his opinions and conclusions, but no one ever questioned his sincerity. He was a life-long tither, and as such he gave liberally of himself and his substance to the Lord.

Those who attended the meeting of the General Synod at Collegeville, Pa., in June, 1950, were deeply moved when this great leader of the Church announced that he was about to surrender his commission. The expressions of appreciation for his long life of service were as genuine as they were numerous. On September 1 he would retire from active service. During the interim the minutes of the meeting of the General Synod had to be published, and many minor matters had to be adjusted. Then, on Wednesday, August 16, while at luncheon at the Hotel Whittier, the angel of death passed over. God's finger touched him, and with the words "I am a very sick man" upon his lips, he soon breathed his last. Loving hands waited on him, but his soul was gone.

On Friday evening, August 18, services were held in the First Evangelical and Reformed Church, Philadelphia, where he was a faithful attendant when in the city. The pastor, Dr. John N. Bethune, was in charge, assisted by Dr. John O. Reagle, an intimate friend. The sermon was preached by Dr. L. W. Goebel, the President of the Church, on the text, II Timothy 4:6-8. On the following day the remains were laid to rest at Frederick, Md.

Thus closed the earthly career of a good and great man. With One whom he so faithfully served all his life could he say: "I have accomplished the work Thou gavest me to do."

"The strife is o'er, the battle done;
The victory of life is won:
The song of triumph has begun.
Alleluia!"

Catawba College Invites You To Share in Her Centennial Celebration

PRESIDENT A. R. KEPPEL

THE third oldest of the Christian liberal arts colleges of the Evangelical and Reformed Church is this year celebrating her Centennial. One hundred years of distinguished Christian service to the youth of our Church and of our land is indeed a significant achievement and one worthy of commemoration. But should this commemoration be merely a season of reminiscence and of pride, it would fall far short of its true meaning. Catawba's Centennial Celebration must therefore be first and foremost a season of thanksgiving—thanks to God for his divine guidance and thanks to her founders and builders for their vision and their faith and their devotion. And it is this kind of a celebration in which all the members of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, our Church, are heartily and enthusiastically invited to share.

With a small beginning back in 1851, when Catawba College first came into being in the town of Newton, North Carolina, she, today, stands among the top Christian liberal arts colleges of her time. And the progress which she has made in her first century of service is not the result of happenstance or accident. Her significant progress stems first from sound objectives and sacrificial effort on the part of her founding fathers, followed by a continuing zeal and an ardent faith on the part of her subsequent builders. Perhaps no school of our Church has been as much an integral part of her whole church fellowship as this particular institution. Born out of the dire need of this southern segment of our Church, the former North Carolina Classis, for Christian higher education in general, and for sound pre-ministerial training in particular, Catawba College has rightly earned for herself the descriptive name by which she is so often called: "A Bulwark of a Christian America."

But having paid tribute, and rightly so, to those individuals who have been directly responsible for her conception and her growth, may we not forget the thousands of our own Church people, who through the years, have so devotedly supported her with their prayers, their loyalty, their time and their material gifts. Without these, Catawba would not today be celebrating her Centennial. In behalf, therefore, of her present trustees and administrative officers, Catawba College wishes to recognize a debt which she can never fully repay—a debt to her mother body, to its administrative boards, to its congregations, to its clergy, and to every member of the Evangelical and Reformed Church who has so admirably supported her in the past and who has therefore so magnificently helped to bring her to this significant century milestone of continuing and enlarging Christian service. Gratitude rather than pride is, therefore, Catawba's Centennial theme.

But let us remember that every anniversary, if it is to have any lasting meaning, must be but a springboard to even greater progress that lies ahead. In tune with that philosophy and in anticipation of this Centennial event, Catawba's present builders are looking forward even more than backward. Six years ago they launched upon a development program which when completed will guarantee at least another century of uninterrupted and deeply meaningful Christian education. They, too, like the founding fathers of old, were challenged by great things not small. They too, were motivated by faith, resting their man-made plans in the hands of Him, the Master Builder of the World, the Guide and Counselor of this Universe of Men.

"The School of Expanding Horizons"

It is therefore with further gratitude that we are privileged to report the successful completion of the first phase of Catawba's current development program—a specific development of her physical plant which has entailed an expenditure of over one million dollars. This development has given her a central heating plant, a very beautiful and comfortable residence hall for men, an infirmary and suppletory men's dormitory, an expansion of her athletic facilities and a doubling of her campus acreage.

But this is only a beginning! At the last meeting of her trustees, the second phase of her development was approved, and so today, on the eve of her Centennial, she is busy raising her second million. With this she will currently build a new library, an auditorium and new gymnasium—all dire needs for her expanding future. It goes without saying that again she must depend upon the devotion and generosity of her own church people for the achievement of this, her second current goal.

On another page in this Year Book you will find further interesting information about this "Century-old School." As fellow-members of "Our Church" won't you help to lift higher and higher "Catawba's Symbolic Tower of Strength"?

Ordinations

Ordination is the last solemn act by which the Church bestows upon applicants the full rights and privileges of Christian ministers. Applicants must be at least twenty-one years of age. They may be ordained in the congregations of which they are members. The Committee on Ordination shall be appointed by the president of the Synod of which the applicant is a member. Only ordained ministers shall serve in the act of ordination.

Ordination is usually dependent upon a call from a charge, but, with the approval of the President of the Church, a Synod may ordain applicants when, in the judgment of the Board of Examiners of the Synod, the nature of their work justifies ordination.

The following record of Ordinations includes all those that were officially reported to the Office of the Secretary of the Church either by the officiating committees or by the presidents of the Synods. They cover the period ending August 1, 1950. It happens every year that some ordinations are not reported in time to be included, with the result that the editors are sometimes censured without reason.

Ministers are again reminded that the figures appearing in connection with their names in the Register of Ministers indicate the year of ORDINATION and not the year of GRADUATION from a seminary. In a number of instances these years are not identical.

THE CONSECRATED DEACONESSSES

In response to an overture from a number of Synods, action was taken at the General Synod meeting in June, 1950, directing that a list of the consecrated deaconesses be included in the 1951 Year Book. While the Editorial Committee of the Year Book is in hearty accord with the action taken, it is regrettable that the directive was received after all available space had been allotted for other material, most of which was already in process. It was therefore impossible to comply with the action of the General Synod.

With this announcement goes the definite assurance that this feature will be incorporated in the 1952 Year Book.

STUDENTS FOR THE MINISTRY

Herewith is presented a summary, by Synods, of the number of students for the ministry as found on the Congregational Statistical Reports for the year 1949. Coincidentally the number is exactly the same as that of the year 1948. The Statistical Reports reveal that the enlistment and nurture of prospective candidates for the ministry in some cases reached down into the high schools, which is as it should be. Because of the dire need it behooves pastors, parents and officials to cooperate with the Life Enlistment organization in recruiting the Christian ministry of the Church. The list follows:

Synod	Denom. Schools	Other Schools	Synod	Denom. Schools	Other Schools
California	0	0	North Wisconsin	20	2
Central Pennsylvania ...	8	6	Pacific Northwest	0	4
Dakota	2	3	Philadelphia	21	2

Names and Stations of Missionaries

of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

The following lists contain the names and addresses of the missionaries representing the Church in our seven stations, viz., Africa, China, Honduras, India, Iraq, Japan, and South America. A comparison with the lists shown last year reveals that a number of those who were under appointment then are now on the frontier making their contribution to the work in no uncertain way. This evidences progress which is most encouraging to the leaders as well as to the home Church. The names of those who are now preparing themselves for life service abroad are given at the end of every section.

The post office addresses of the ordained ministers as well as of the appointees will be found in the Register of Ministers in this edition of the Year Book. The names in italics after the post office addresses of lay missionaries represent the Stations at which they are working. These names are not part of the post office addresses. Such addresses of missionaries home on furlough as were known at the time of going to press are given in the Register of Ministers.

MISSIONARY CANDIDATES IN TRAINING

Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Moser

Deceased Ministers of the Church

They rest from their labors

Their works do follow them

THE following is a record of the ministers of the Church who passed to their reward from September 1, 1949, to August 25, 1950. Just as the thirty-nine listed in the 1950 Year Book represented the smallest number of deaths on record for a given year, so the fifty-seven hereinafter listed is perhaps the largest number.

The year took a heavy toll of veteran ministers, faithful pastors and leaders high in the service of the Church. The last named group include the Secretary of the Church, the Editor of the Messenger, the president and director of public relations of the Mission House, a former president of Elmhurst College, a director of Hood, a superintendent of one of our leading benevolent institutions and a recently elected emeritus superintendent of another, a field agent among the Magyars in South America, and others. May the comfort of the holy Gospel sustain and bless the hearts and lives of all who mourn the passing of loved ones. "He doeth all things well."

Widows of Ministers

Evangelical and Reformed Church

Every effort has again been made to secure an accurate and complete list of the widows of ministers, together with their addresses. Inaccuracies, omissions, deaths, etc., should be reported to the office of Dr. Kerschner, 616 Schaff Bldg., 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa. (It is the editorial policy not to include widows whose status has been changed through re-marriage.)

Register of Ministers

As of September 15, 1950

The following list gives the name, post-office address, the place of theological preparation and the year of ordination (or licensure, if not ordained) of every minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. It contains, as nearly as possible all changes of addresses to date shown above. The Constitution of our Church and the actions of our judicatories make the Secretary of the Church responsible for all records of our ministers and congregations. That this register may be correct, every minister changing his address shall notify W. S. Kerschner, Statistician, Office of the Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

SYNODS OF THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

SYNODS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Locations of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the street location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns and St. John's.

Please send notes of any errors immediately to W. S. Kerschner, Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

The Presidents

OF THE THIRTY-FOUR SYNODS

NINE new presidents were elected at the spring meetings of the Synods. Two of these were elevated from the vice-presidency to succeed their presidents who found it necessary to relinquish their office, one because of ill health and the other because he removed beyond the bounds of the Synod. The Synods electing new presidents were California, Dakota, Central Pennsylvania, Lancaster, Pacific Northwest, Southeast Ohio, South Illinois, Southwest Ohio and West New York. As has been the case for three years past, every president is the pastor of a church, and every one is a man of light and leading in his Synod.

The pictures of the presidents, together with their addresses and the Synods they serve, are given herewith. Their complete addresses may be found in the Register of Ministers, and the Rosters of the Synods indicate the extent of their jurisdiction.

"The president of a Synod shall have been a member of the Synod for not less than three years and a minister of the Church for not less than five years. . . . The term of office for the officers of the Synod shall be two years. After two full terms of office the president and vice-president shall not be eligible to succeed themselves." (By-laws, Art. 5, Sec. 57.)

Review of the 1949 Statistics

A NET gain of 7,726 brought our total communicant membership as of December 31, 1950, up to 726,361. The accessions for the year were: by confirmation, 21,317 vs. 20,908 in 1948; by transfer, 13,196 vs. 12,601; by renewal, 13,697 vs. 13,304. Total accessions, 48,210 vs. 46,813 in 1948. The losses for the year were: by death, 11,677 vs. 11,449 in 1948; by transfer, 11,491 vs. 11,315; by erasure, 16,735 vs. 18,685. Total losses, 39,903 vs. 41,149 in 1948. Noteworthy items were the gains in every column under Accessions and the substantial decrease of 1,546 in the number of erasures. This is as it should be. The total accessions in 1949 exceeded the total losses by 8,307, compared with 5,364 in 1948.

A matter which gives us pause is the fact that eight Synods reported net losses in membership in 1949. They are Dakota, Lehigh, Magyar, Michigan-Indiana, North Illinois, North Wisconsin, Pittsburgh and West New York. A fact even more challenging in these years of the United Evangelistic Advance is that 256 of our 2,754 congregations did not have a single accession during 1949, and 1,090 congregations registered no net increase in membership. This, however, indicates improvement over 1948, when there were 1,298 congregations not having a single accession during the year. The average membership of the congregations was 264 as compared with 260 in 1948. In 1946 it was 254.

The number of pastors at the end of the year was 1,791 and the ministers without charge, 676, or a total of 2,467 ministers vs. 2,442 in 1948. The number of pastors has increased since the statistical summary was made. The number of charges increased by 12 to a total of 2,078, but the number of congregations dropped by 12 to a total of 2,754. The year was marked by a large number of consolidations of several weak congregations located near each other, as well as by the dissolution of some multiple congregation charges into their constituent units, each now representing a separate charge. A splendid increase was registered in the total number of members communing from 596,049 in 1948, to 606,551 in 1949.

Following an appreciable loss in the Church School enrollment in 1948, the pendulum swung in the other direction in 1949, when the total enrollment increased from 436,512 to 455,880, or an increase of 19,368, or almost 5%. The average attendance also mounted from 265,966 to 274,475, a gain of 8,509, or slightly more than 3%. The average attendance in 1949 was 60%, which was slightly below the 1948 average.

Encouraging increases in the Christian grace of giving are noted both in the benevolences and in the current expenses. For the second year in succession the receipts for the Apportionment exceeded the $2,000,000 mark, the increase over 1948 being about $10,000 according to the congregational reports submitted. A sad reflection is that the contributions for World Service dropped about $12,000. However, the total benevolences mounted from $3,923,835 to $4,053,513. The congregations also gave considerable attention to the ridding of their properties of debt, the total contributed for this purpose being $1,124,369. The grand total in the Current Expenses column was $11,362,947, and for Total Congregational Expenses the Church contributed $19,902,507. A new high is represented in the grand total of $19,902,507 for all benevolences of the Church. This exceeds the previous year's total by more than two and a half million dollars.

Anyone who studies the congregational statistical reports will be impressed by the great amount of improving and renovating of church properties, the building of new churches and the purchasing or building of parsonages. This is reflected in the increase of more than $1,000,000 in the parsonage valuation and of almost $17,000,000 in the value of all other church buildings. The total valuation of the latter is set at $128,406,473, and of the parsonages at $15,234,434. One would therefore naturally expect the increase in the total indebtedness from $3,673,826 to $5,296,949.

On the basis of the membership of 718,635 at the beginning of 1949 and of the contributions for the same year, the per capita giving for benevolences was $5.64 and for current expenses $27.70, or a grand total of $33.34.

The Statistical Tables of the Congregations

For the Year Ending December 31, 1949

THERE are games in which the contestants vie with each other not so much in gaining the greatest number of points as in keeping their score as low as possible, and the one with the lowest score is declared the winner.

In a sense, the securing of the congregational statistical reports is such a contest, and the efforts of the Statistician of the Church are always directed toward having the smallest possible number of non-reporting congregations. There were 62 such congregations in 1947 and 78 in 1948. What of 1949? It is again with sincere regret that in 1949 the number mounted to 81, of which number 67 congregations were without pastoral leadership. The circumstance that passes all comprehension is the fact that the remaining 14 congregations were served by full-time pastors, one of whom was even the president of his Synod!! Some of these were addressed as often as six times, but to no avail. Six Synods lacked from one to three reports of attaining the 100% goal, which makes one wonder whether a still more intensive effort on the part of all concerned might have secured better results.

The 81 non-reporting congregations are distributed among the Synods as follows: California, 3; Dakota, 26; Iowa, 3; Magyar, 4; Michigan-Indiana, 3; Missouri Valley, 5; Nebraska, 8; Northern, 6; North Illinois, 1; Northwest Ohio, 6; North Wisconsin, 5; Pacific Northwest, 3; Rocky Mountain, 1; Southeast Ohio, 2; South Illinois, 2; Southwest Ohio, 2, and West New York, 1.

Sixteen Synods attained the 100% goal, which number was the same in 1948. However, in 1947 there were 21. The order in which the 16 Synods attained the goal follows: Mercersburg, Southern, South Wisconsin, New York, Lehigh, Northeast Ohio, East Pennsylvania, Lancaster, Susquehanna, Philadelphia, Reading, Kansas City, Texas, Central Pennsylvania, South Indiana and Pittsburgh. Be it said to the credit of all concerned that this record would not have been possible without the persistent efforts of the officers of the Synods, especially in the first and last Synods named.

Special mention is made and credit given to those laymen and women in approximately 270 vacant congregations who labored faithfully, many of them against great odds, in preparing their reports, but who were determined that their congregations should be counted on the right side. May something of a blessing be theirs, along with a keen satisfaction they must feel, for duty done plus. This again demonstrates that where there is the will there is a way, and definitely challenges those indifferent pastors and congregations whose reports (some perennially) are again among the missing. It is not too early to think in terms of preparing the 1950 reports. The blanks will again be mailed late in December.

The Statistician of the Church, who has shared with the Secretary the responsibility of securing and compiling the annual statistics and has also served as Editor of the Year Book, takes this opportunity of expressing his gratitude for and appreciation of the generous measure of whole-hearted co-operation he has received and enjoyed from Church officials, pastors, congregations, synodical officers, heads of institutions and many others during his seven years of service.

EXPLANATION OF SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated, and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no report for 1949, and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available. These congregational statistics went to press early in July. Therefore, many of the pastors whose names appear are not the present incumbents. A more accurate and complete listing appears in the Rosters of the Synods.

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME

Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania

Rev. R. S. Vandevere, Superintendent

Bethany children are happy and contented. Contentment follows perfect coordination of child aspirations and manager's sympathetic understanding.

Bethany is proud of and grateful for its beautiful and healthful natural setting. But we are far more proud when we can boast of a staff of employees who can make our children truly happy in their adopted Home. When our children rejoice in the life experiences of Bethany then are we confident that we are attaining the acme of administrative ideals.

We are grateful to the members of our Evangelical and Reformed Church for the splendid support they have rendered our Home. Bethany needs and appreciates the prayers and goodwill of our many friends.

In your daily walk, enlist a new friend for Bethany.

The Emmaus Homes at Marthasville and St. Charles, Missouri, offer a gateway to a separate world for the mentally deficient, chronic epileptic and mental seniles. Each of these institutions has become a haven of refuge fostering co-operative living among the mentally handicapped. They are established as small communities so that those so handicapped might find what may be withheld from them in average society. They are like little worlds adapted to the needs of those who will not respond to any restorative treatments or who have never had the powers or abilities which are the heritage of the average person. Personnel for these locations is recruited primarily from the churches. For information on this kind of Christian service write to the superintendent of either location.

The Theological Seminary

Lancaster, Pennsylvania

This School of Theology, the oldest in the Evangelical and Reformed Church, was founded in 1825. Its present Faculty consists of eight Professors and one Instructor and a full-time Librarian. The Swander, the McCauley, and the David Schneder Foundations provide annual courses of lectures.

The Academic Year 1950-1951 is divided into three terms, the first running from September 18 to December 1, the second from December 4 to February 23, and the third from March 5 to May 23. The curriculum is divided into seven main departments: Old Testament, New Testament, Church History, Systematic Theology, Practical Theology, Christian Education, and Rural Church Work. Special courses are offered in the Department of Practical Theology: Evangelism, Ecumenics, Missions. Special courses are given in Church Music and supervised Field Work. Required and elective courses lead to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Daily worship in Santee Chapel, with pipe organ under the direction of a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists.*

No charge for tuition. Rooms and board in Richards and Dietz Halls at moderate rates.

CAROLINE MISSION, INC.

1823 Hickory St., St. Louis, Mo.

Located in an underprivileged, deteriorated area of downtown St. Louis, Missouri. Provides a Protestant Christian Neighborhood House program as well as a full Christian Education and Church program. Included are congregational worship, Church School and Weekday School of Religion every week, and over 45 distinct clubs and organizations in the Neighborhood house and Church programs. Our Family Service worker seeks to enable families to help themselves and meet their crises through counsel, through referral to other specialized agencies, and occasionally through supplementary financial assistance. Our staff of six full-time professional workers, and four part-time and non-professional workers, and sixty volunteer group workers need your financial giving in order to provide this ministry in His name. If you are interested in having a share in such a Christian "frontier" mission, send your inquiries or your contributions to Caroline Mission at the address above.

"More than 55 years of Christian Welfare to Children and Aged"

BENSENVILLE HOME SOCIETY

An expanding program to care for the aged. A continuing program of service to children.

Homelike nursing care units will be located in convenient service regions. Our residents can enjoy the continued companionship of old friends and neighbors.

Do you have suitable property to offer for sale or rent? The gift of such a home would make a most suitable family memorial. The loyalty and support of our friends is needed to make this project a success. Write to us for descriptive literature.

Bequests, legacies, memorials and special gifts will enrich the lives of needy older people and children . . . by supporting such an agency as Bensenville Home Society, you will be making a great contribution to Christian welfare. Memorials to departed loved ones will help us immeasurably in this great undertaking at Bensenville.

THE REV. A. J. MUNSTERMAN, Superintendent
MRS. KATHRYN I. GILLIAM, Director of Social Service
Box 338, Bensenville, Illinois—Phone: 716

The Home is licensed by the State, and the program endorsed by authorities in the field of Social Welfare.

HOMEWOOD CHURCH HOME FOR THE AGED

HAGERSTOWN, MARYLAND

Established in 1932 by the old Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church, Homewood now serves the areas covered by the Potomac, Mercersburg, Southern and Central Pennsylvania Synods. On Feb. 11, 1950, ground was broken for a new modern three-story building, fireproof construction, with accommodations for fifty-two guests. Located on U. S. Route 11, about four and one-half miles south of Hagerstown, the new Homewood is to be ready for occupancy by December 1950.

The Mastery of Mystery

Insurance is likely to be surrounded with an air of mystery. Even preachers find themselves puzzled when they read literature aimed at selling policies.

This need not be your experience. The Fund believes it can transform a mystified prospect into a satisfied customer. It encourages questioning friends to seek answers to all kinds of questions.

Altar Cross—27 inches in height. Lasting in quality and liturgically correct.

Crucifix—30 inches in height. Figure is finished in fine sculptural detail.

Beauty IN ALTARWARE

The finest craftsmanship and 57 years of study created the impressive yet beautifully simple, dignified designs found in Flour City Altarware. Formed from magnificent bronze, these pieces require no polishing. Light is softly diffused and the metal glows warmly even on dark days.

In addition to the pieces illustrated, matching Candelabra, Candlesticks, Vases and Altar Desks are available in the same classic, bronze styling.

Collection Bason—Durable yet dignified collection basins available in a wide selection of finishes, matching or complementing the Altarware.

Grave Markers 2' x 1' solid bronze—to endure through the ages. Rich in Christian symbolism,—impelling in their spiritual dignity. Many of the newer cemeteries permit only bronze grave plates. Pastors are invited to establish connections through which their congregations can obtain these—best of bronze—grave plates with all benefits accruing to their churches.

Classically impressive these floor standing candelabra are furnished in solid, thick-walled bronze, milled to perfect, lustrous planes, exceptionally heavy and almost impossible to damage. Design is suitable for any style of altar. Matching items for cross or crucifix design. May be ordered with or without electrical equipment.

Winnebago Indian Mission and School

Black River Falls and Neillsville, Wisconsin

Contrary to popular belief, Indians are not supported by the government. They work for their living like other folks. In their economic distress our Winnebago Mission has assisted them by direct relief, by education, by the establishment of local industries, by sponsoring cooperative enterprises.

But solving economic problems is not enough. There are spiritual hungers which only the Church can satisfy. For 72 years through the ministrations of the Winnebago Indian School and Mission it has brought comfort to the sick and needy, enlightenment to eager young minds, and the Bread of Life to hungry souls. selected for National Evening Hymn Memorial Carillon

AT ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETERY

"While these Bells ring, Safely Rest. Freedom Lives!"

So reads the Memorial Tablet commemorating this gift of a mighty electronic Carillon from the American Veterans of World War II to the people of the United States.

We, as the maker, are greatly honored that "Carillonic Bells" have been accepted by Harry S. Truman, President of the United States, The Congress, and other Government bodies for this soul-stirring memorial.

The ever-increasing number of "Carillonic Bell" instruments providing vibrant "Living Memorials" in churches, universities, and public locations throughout the world testify to the musical and mechanical superiority of this Schulmerich product.

Prices are amazingly low—No tower is required. For information, write . . .

INSURANCE

IS IMPORTANT

This Company has written the insurance for Evangelical and Reformed Churches for the past sixty years.

Writes insurance on churches, hospitals, orphanages, seminaries, colleges, pastors' household goods and personal property, pastors' widows and missionaries; also the property of the members in the congregation.

Pastors' personal property housed in the church office is insured without special endorsement, while in transit or storage without advance in rates.

The Company writes Fire and Extended Coverage. Extended Coverage is very important as it provides protection for Windstorm, Hail, Explosion, Riot, Riot Attending a Strike, Civil Commotion, Aircraft, Vehicles, Smoke.

All Policyholders should make a careful appraisal of their buildings and take an inventory of the contents so as to get their insurance in line with present-day values of replacement.

Policies can be written on a three or five year term, or on an annual basis for a term of five years. This plan simplifies payment of premiums.

No carrying charges and all policies are non-assessable.

The company operates under a perpetual charter.

Inquiries addressed to the Home Office will be cheerfully answered.
